PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To extend the term of supervision for Years, for a total term of Years.
☒ To modify the conditions of supervision as follows. The addition of the following special condition(s):

The defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of 2 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.26 per day.

The defendant shall refrain from the use of alcohol and shall submit to testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant submit to evaluation and treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

CAUSE

On March 20, 2006, and May 9, 2006, the offender reported to the office under the influence of alcohol. The offender subsequently met with Sr. Probation Officer Norma DeArmas, Drug and Alcohol Treatment Specialist, who determined that treatment at Straight and Narrow was necessary (due to his prior history of alcohol abuse). According to the offender's counselor at Straight and Narrow, he does not participate in AA meetings as directed.

On May 28, 2006, the offender was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated in Paterson, New Jersey. The offender failed to report this arrest in a timely manner.

The offender failed to report as directed on March 5, 2007. In addition, on October 26, 2006, the offender refused to disclose his whereabouts, preventing the probation officer from conducting a field/employment contact.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Denise Morales
U.S. Probation Officer

Date: 03/19/07

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By 'assistance of counsel,' I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows. The addition of the following special condition(s):

The defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of 2 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.26 per day.

The defendant shall refrain from the use of alcohol and shall submit to testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant submit to evaluation and treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.
